The exposition of school work to be made in connection with this meeting promises to be highly interesting and profitable to all who are identified with or interested in educational work. From presents indications every city and nearly every county in the State will contribute collections of pupil's work. The various phases of public-school work will be presented. Dr. Curry's contribution of thirty bronze Peabody medals, to be awarded as prizes for the best exhibits made, has stimulated teachers and pupils. It is Superintendent Massey's purpose to send the best exhibits to the World's Fair.

PEADODY SCHOLABSHIPS. PRADODY SCHOLARSHIPS.

Of the eighteen Peabody scholarships allotted to Virginia in the Normal College, Nashville, Penn., eleven will expire at the close of the present college year by graduation of the holders. Four of the vacancies have been filled by the appointment of students who have maintained themselves at the college for a year or more at their own expense. The seven vacancies will be filled on competitive examinations to be held this summer under direction of the Department of Public Instruction. Young ladies and gentlemen who purpose to follow teaching as a rocation should apply to the department for full information relative to these scholarships.

UNSURPASSED ARRANGEMENTS.

The school authorities are confident that the arrangements for institutes this year have never been surpassed in the history of the school system of Virgina. The course of instruction provided embraces all departments of academic and professional school work, and as far as practicable is graded to meet the varied wants of taschers. The instructors have been selected with special reference to their fitness for the positions assigned them; and it is believed that the corps for the year, both from other States and our own, will compare favorably with that of any other State.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Pollard Sues a Newspaper.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Experts are busy at work examining into the ventilation of the Senate chamber. There have been numerous complaints by senators about the foul air which they have to breathe. These complaints have several times of late been fully ventilated on the floor—an advantage, by the way, which they have had over the chamber itself.

To-day before the Senate met a couple of experts were testing the capacity of the four ducts by which air is pumped into the Senate. They used anemometers in their work. A number of senators who were on hand were much interested in the little machines. They bear a pretty big name, but they are very simple affairs. Said Senator Sherman, who was of the interested lookers-on: "I have frequently read about anemometers, and have heretofore been of the opinion that they were very complicated scientific instruments. I am surprised to find that they are really but the wind-mills of the children mounted over registers."

over registers.

"Yes." said Senator Platt, of Connecticut, "about everything resolves itself down to the simplest things when we get at first causes. Your present astonishment, Sherman, reminds one of the spirit of regret with which ex-Senator Ingalls announced his discovery that the air-brake was but the application of the principle of suction which he used to employ, as a boy, in raising heavy stones by means of a string and a circular piece of wet leather. He telt inclined to kick himself for not doing what the inventor of the air-brake has done, and thereby reaped a large harvest of dollars."

The agent of the Omaha World-Herald is in the city upon business the mention of which will much interest Virginians. He is here in the interest of the Nebraska newspaper mentioned, which has become the defendant in a libel suit which a lady well known in Virginia has instituted against it. The lady is Mrs. Natalie Pollard, who was the wife of the late Edward A. Pollard, who wrote the history of the "Lost Cause." It appears that Mrs. Pollard has been travelling through the West on a lecturing tour. She col. COLLIDED WITH A NEWSPAPER. the West on a lecturing tour. She collided with the Omaha newspaper, which printed a story concerning her when she kept a hotel in this city some time in the early seventies. Other matter of a similar character was also given to the western people. Mrs. Pollard's libel sunt against the newspaper is for $50,000 damages. The agent is here to get information to back up what the paper has said.

PASED THE SENATE.

PASSED THE SENATE.

The Senate to-day passed the following bill, which was introduced some days ago by Senator Daniel:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to the College of William and Mary, in Virginia, the sum of $64,000 out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to reimburse said college for the destruction of its buildings and other property destroyed without authority by soldiers of the United States during the late war: provided, that no money be so paid except upon accounts of such destruction and the damage caused thereby duly verified and proven.

Senator Vance, of North Carolina, is back in Washington. He has been home taking a rest, which his physical well-being demanded. He is getting better each day, and is able to be in attendance upon the sessions of the Senate. He is on the way, his physicians say, to a complete recovery from his recent attack of facial paralysis. He looks about as well as ever, it taking a pretty close scrutiny of his face to discern any traces left there by his recent attack.

"The result is, of course, a gratifying achievement for those who took this paper's (the Hill) view of the fight, but there should be no undue exultation over the discomfort of our brother Democrats, who made the best fight they could and were beaten. While the result, in a large measure, may be ascribed to the superior organization of those opposed to the Cleveland delegation, it was due in a great measure to the conviction of the people that the Democratic party should not be made subservient to the ambition of any one man."

PETERSBURG'S CONVENTION IN MAY. The Delegates Will Probably Favor Hill-

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Petersburg, Va., April 22.—The Democratic City Committee has appointed the 3d day of May for ward meetings of its party to elect delegates to the city convention, to be held on the 5th of May, which will select delegates to the State convention. There seems to be no doubt that the Petersburg delegation will favor Hill, though it may go uninstructed. The Hill sentiment is apparently growing stronger here each day. No political clubs, however, have yet been organized.

Willie Holmes, a young negro man from Richmond, was to-day convicted of maliciously mutting Willis Gilliam, and sentenced to the pententiary for one year. He will probably get a new trial, ject to Be Called.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., April 22.—While it is an open secret that the President is endeavoring to secure an international conference on the silver question, the closest reticence in regard to the whole subject is maintained at the White House and the State and Treasury Departments. Mr. S. Dana Horton, as a confidential representative of this government, has spent a year or more among the financial departments of Great Britain. France, Russia, Austria, and Italy for the purpose of ascertaining their views on the subject of a bimetallic standard, and he has made elaborate private reports of the results of his mission. He is now in Washington, and is a frequent visitor to the State and Treasury Departments. Since his return from Europe the correspondence on this subject has been wholly with our Ministers at toreign capitals. It is said that the reports received from the different countries have satisfied the President of the advisability of an international conference, and that he has practically decided to take the initiative in the mater. It is also understood that he will soon send a special message to Congress transmitting the correspondence on the subject.

LOWELL GROCER HAS TO SAY OF

AYER'S Sarsaparilla AS A SPRING MEDICINE.

"A year ago last spring, my partand responsibility of a large grocery business, fell upon me. The increased care and hard work, in connection with the low state of my blood, from which I had always suffered during the early spring, so severely taxed my strength that I became all run down, had no appetite, was weak, nervous, and endured all the torments which headache, indigestion, general debility, and total loss of energy, could possibly inflict. The medicines recommended me by my physicians did no more good than so much water. AYER'S Sarsaparilla being favorably brought to my attention, I tried it, and, in a short time, began to feel better. I continued to take this medicine for nearly two months, at the end of which time I felt like a new man. My appetite, energy, and strength returned, my food digested perfectly, and all traces of headache and nervousness disappeared. I am convinced that if I had not taken AYER'S Sarsaparilla, instead of being strong and well, when the WARM WEATHER set in, I should have been confined to my under the doctor's care, and totally unable to attend to business. I am a thorough believer in the merits of AYER'S Sarsaparilla for restoring to healthy, vigorous action, the vital organs of the body, when they have become weakened or exhausted from any cause. As a spring medicine, there is nothing like it."
